R.CHASE Kidney Food Makes a Most

Remarkable Cure Cured After Nine Years' Suffering. Could Only Walk With Hands on Knees.

F. J. Sadler, 122 East Thirtcenth Street, Manchester, Va., writes: For nearly nine years I was a great sufferer from kidney trouble, enduring all that time excruciating pain in my back and across my bowels. I was drawn down so that I could only walk with my hands on my knees. I tried many different medicines, but all to no avail. Finally I tried Dr. Chase's Kidney Food, and I must say I owe all my present good health to your Kidney Food. I prize it higher than any other medicine.

Kidney Diseases are More Dangerous than those of the Lungs, or any Other Organ, and Come on With Much Less Warning,

With Much Less Warning.

Your Kidneys are often your weakest organs, and if your back is weak, urine highly colored, red, blood-like, white, milky, stringy, or ropy, you are losing albumen, the most vital element of the body, and are liable to paralysis or locomotor ataxia. Dr. Chase's Kidney Food makes the kidneys strong and active, neutralizes the uric acid, cleanses the blood of all poisons and cures backache, weak back, rheumatism, gout, pain in the loins, diabetes, Bright's disease, gravel, scalding of the urine, all diseases of the kidneys, spine and bladder, and stops the wasting of albumen through the urine quicker than any other remedy. Colville was five miles from Fort Yuma. Colonel McClentock used to lgnore the town's laws and go for trespassers against his command himself. He had had tilts with Joe Peters and had declared that he would some day get him dead to rights. He thought the day had come when a paymaster The old company, of which Moses was robbed, and the finger of auspleion pointed strongly to the gambler. Over to Colville he went, with half a company at his back, and Peters had just five minutes to prepare himself. He 'made good' by walking out to meet the colonel and holding a revolver to his head until he gave the order for the soldlers to turn back. When the colonel had got back to his parade ground he took the biggest kind of an oath that

He had the cough of a consumptive on bim and men had begun to notice that his grip was growing weaker when winter, which had been holding off in a wonderful way, set in with a blizzard. It began blowing and snowing soon after noon one day, and an hour after dark the driver of the up couch rolled off his horse at the Black Bear hotel and was carried into the barroom more dead than alive. He reported that he had been compelled to abandon Kansas City, Jan. 26.-At the Union his couch in Panther pass, five miles below. He had cut loose one of the leaders and had been three hours mak-

If a rescuer succeeded in forcing his way through the drifts it would be to find the woman frozen to death. They argued and profested, but Peters quietly went on with his preparations. When they saw that he was determined to go man after man offered his company.

"I'm game to try it alone," replied Peters. "You know I've got a little account to settle with the colonel. Have things ready to thaw us out when we turn up.

"There's a man for you, and we are a lot of cura!" announced on individual as Peters rode away in the storm and darkness, and no man turned to resent

No one has ever told how the gambler's horse buffeted his way through the drifts until the stage was finally reached. What seemed impossible was at last accomplished. The three stage horses left behind had fallen stiff in their tracks and were hidden under the snow, and the vehicle was simply one of the many snow mounds
